EDUCATION & SCHOOL SUPPORT LETTERS

Helping parents and students
advocate for fair access in schools

Introduction

Short overview:

This bundle contains templates for parents, guardians, and students to communicate with schools about academic accommodations, learning supports, and advocacy needs. Each letter is designed to be respectful, clear, and effective in getting schools to respond.

Common uses:

- Requesting an Individualized Education Plan (IEP)
- Asking for classroom or testing accommodations
- Advocating for special education services
- Communicating about bullying, attendance, or behavioral concerns
- Requesting school transfers or program changes
